Morning Year 5

Here are your activities for today while school is closed. Please try your best – this will help you in our upcoming lessons.

Spelling:
Go over last week's spelling list (sent for homework). Be ready for the test on Wednesday.

Literacy – Task: Write an Informal Email
Write an email to a friend about something exciting or fun you have done recently (e.g. a theme park, sleepover, hobby, or birthday).

Remember to include these features:

- Subject line – short and clear.
- Greeting – e.g. Hi Sam,
- Introduction – start in a friendly way (How are you?).
- Main body – explain what you did, how you felt, and add detail.
- Questions – ask your friend something back.
- Informal tone – chatty and friendly.
- Sign-off – e.g. See you soon,
- Your name

Maths:

- Task 1: Practise rounding 5- or 6-digit numbers to the nearest 100, 1,000, 10,000 and 100,000. (Tip: roll dice to make your numbers!)
- Task 2: Practise your times tables on TTRS.

RE:

We are learning: "What does it mean if Christians believe God is loving and holy?"

1. Write the meanings of these words:

- Omniscient
- Omnipresent
- Omnipotent
- Holy
- Loving
- Spirit
- Eternal

2. Then describe some ways Christians worship God.

Well done for working hard at home today! Remember to do your best, check over your work, and be ready to share what you have learned when we are back together in class.
